

Extended Rehabilitative Services (ERS) Unit Mission

We promote mental health for those people in Southwestern Virginia who need longer term more intensive services to assist in their recovery. The Extended Rehabilitative Services unit is the place within Southwestern Virginia Mental Health Institute's continuum of care where these services are provided with continual optimism, hope and faith in the resilience of the human spirit.